Key Data

John McCarthy is recognised as one of the industry's leaders. He has an intimate working relationship with major banks, superannuation funds, institutional investors, financiers and senior real estate professionals and property analysts, as well as most industry bodies within the property, building and construction industry. Roles have included National President of the Property Council of Australia. He is currently a Director of the Australian Building Codes Board (ABCB) after spending five years as Chair of the Australian Construction Industry Forum. He served as inaugural Chair of ASBEC and is Australia's first industry representative on the International Board of the CIB (International Council for Research and Innovation in Building and Construction or "Conseil International du Bâtiment"). In 2009 he was awarded the Order of Australia. John works out of Sydney as Chairman of Australian Enterprise Holdings Property Pty Ltd.
